The Society for Iranian Studies

Volume X, Number 1, January 1978

Address all communications to Professor Gene Garthwaite, the Secretary of the Society for Iranian Studies, History Department, Dartmouth College, Hanover, New Hampshire 03755.

ANNUAL MEETING OF SIS

The Society's Twelfth Annual Meeting was held during November 9-12, 1977 in New York in conjunction with the Eleventh Annual Meeting of the Middle East Studies Association of North America (MESA). Our two panels on "City, Town, and Society in Iranian History," and "Human Sexuality in Iran" were well attended. The latter, unfortunately, was disrupted by protestors but then reconvened. On behalf of the Society, the Executive Secretary would like to thank Mary-Jo DelVecchio Good, our program director, for organizing these panels, and, in addition, to thank chairpersons Richard Bulliet and Marvin Zonis.

The Society's business meeting was held in the late afternoon of Wednesday, November 9. The reports submitted at that meeting are in the process of being updated through January 1 and will be included in the May Newsletter.

ELECTIONS TO THE COUNCIL

At the Annual Business Meeting the following were nominated to fill the three vacancies for 1978-1980 on the Council: Lois Beck, Utah; Massud Farzan, UCLA; Eric Hooglund, Bowdoin; Muhammad Jazayery, Texas; and Guity Nashat, Illinois, Chicago Circle. Ballots have been mailed out and will be counted by the Election Committee, which is chaired by John Perry. Both Jerome Clinton and Farhad Kazemi declined re-nomination; our thanks to them for their years of service and continuing interest in the Society. Lois Beck was completing the late T. Cuyler Young, Sr.'s term and agreed to be nominated for a full term.

THIRTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING IN ANN ARBOR (November 8-11, 1978)

At the Annual Business Meeting, the members of the Society voted to have three panels at Ann Arbor: "New Perspectives on the History of Early Islamic Iran," Amin Banani, UCLA (chair); "Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Traditional Economics," Robert Dillon (chair); and "Child Rearing and Socialization in Iran," Marvin Zonis, Chicago (chair).

SIS CONFERENCE PROPOSAL

In past years SIS has co-sponsored scholarly conferences--1969, Power in Islamic Iran, UCLA, and 1974, the Isfahan Colloquium, Fogg Museum of Art, Harvard--and it was agreed at our New York Meeting to seek a co-sponsor for another conference, to be entitled "The Constitutional Revolution in Iran: A Re-Appraisal." Co-chairpersons are Mangol Bayat, Harvard, and Ervand Abrahamian, Baruch, and the planning committee includes Marvin Zonis, Chicago, Lois Beck, Utah, and Nikki Keddie, UCLA.

MESA PROGRAM CHANGES AND REQUIREMENTS

The MESA Program Committee inaugurated a number of innovations at the New York Meeting. One of these, especially, affects societies like SIS, and that is the scheduling of meetings held in association with MESA. In the past these meetings, such as our Business Meeting, were scheduled for Thursday afternoon, the first full day of the MESA meeting. In New York, and in Ann Arbor (1978), however, such meetings were shifted to Wednesday. Our 1978 Business Meeting is now scheduled for late afternoon on Wednesday, 8 November. This means that your travel time should be moved up by half a day, so that you may arrive in time for the meeting.

Other important MESA Program Committee changes affect panels. Panels that are not co-sponsored with MESA, our Human Sexuality Panel, for example, will be scheduled for Wednesday, 8 November. The Program Committee carefully evaluates abstracts in advance and adheres to all deadlines. (Abstracts are due no later than 15 May 1978 and must be accompanied by the pre-registration fee of $14.) In 1977 the MESA Program Committee removed papers from panels and placed them in category C (for distribution and discussion).

SIS MEMBERSHIP

We sadly note the death of one of our members: Dr. Ferydoon Firoozi, Department of Economics, Northeastern Illinois University (on 28 October).

The SIS Membership Roster is included in this Newsletter, and any corrections or changes should be sent to the executive secretary. Also, membership renewals are being sent out. In addition, we would welcome any newsworthy notes about our members for the May Newsletter. Do not forget to send entries for the continuing bibliography of translations of Persian works (see Newsletter, May-October 1977); this bibliography will begin to appear in the May Newsletter.

IRANIAN WRITERS CONTINUE STRUGGLE FOR BASIC RIGHTS

As reported in the previous issue of the Newsletter, for the past year, a distinguished group of Iranian writers and intellectuals have been denied formal recognition as a legal body, the right to publish its own organ, and to hold meetings. But, contrary to repeated statements by high officials of the Iranian government and the press concerning the basic freedom of expression and assembly, and in spite of several appeals by various international groups and agencies, the Iranian Writers' Association still has not received official recognition and has been prevented from engaging in professional activities.

Aside from withholding such official recognition, a new and ominous strategy seems to have been employed recently by the government in dealing with the more active members of the Association. In several separate, but apparently related incidents, a number of Iranian scholars--including Professor Homa Nateq (Dept. of History, University of Tehran) and the poet Nemat Mirzazadeh (Azarm)--were recently (Monday, 21 November 1977) kidnapped and severely beaten by agents of the government's security forces. Several other activist writers have also been harrassed and physically attacked.

The Council of SIS joins all the other literary, academic, and professional groups that have condemned these repressive and senseless activities of the Iranian government.
